

We continue our cycle of monthly messages for 2026 with the message from May 1, 2010 for our prayer groups and personal reflection.

My dear apostles, how often you are challenged, personally, when you attempt to speak the Good News. This brings with it the temptation to connect the authenticity of the Good News to your personal holiness. Alas, you find that you fall short, of course, because you serve within the limitations of your flawed humanity. Does this decrease the force of the Good News you are called to share? Does this diminish the authenticity of the Good News? No. Your flawed humanity is rather testimony to the extent of the Good News. Yes, the scope of the Good News is such that each of my little apostles becomes a true herald, human flaws notwithstanding. You are each uniquely qualified to bring this Good News to a wounded world. You see, dearest apostle, it is through accepting your own pain and offering yourself for healing that you become my greatest example. You, in your willingness to accept healing and in your willingness to grow, show others what I am offering to the world in this time of renewal. Beautiful humanity, my desire to heal you is so strong it is painful, and to console you, to bring you to the Father where you will find eternal dignity and confidence. I ache with the desire that you accept my love. There are people who are waiting to experience me, but it is through your acceptance of me, with complete abandonment, that I will be brought to them. Do I burden you with my work? Do you find my friendship a heavy cross to carry? Let me assure you, it is only in this cross that you will find your joy.
